Instructions for treatment of entry following the competition:

It is highly recommended that hybridizers have a back up supply of their new hybrid's prior to entering the competition in case of lost or damaged shipments. Submitted waterlilies will not be returned to an address outside of the U.S., however various options are available. It is important to note that any Botanic Gardens receiving a tuber will be prohibited from selling or sharing competition waterlilies. They will be used for display and promotional purposes only, to highlight the competition and the hybridizers.

Please choose ONE of the following options:

There is no implied warranty for live arrival as shipping errors can occur.

Complete this section ONLY if you chose the option " Send my waterlily to a recipient inside the United States". Fill out and we will contact you regarding the shipping fee.
